St. Catherine of Siena Newsletter August 28, 2018

WEEKLY REFLECTION!

This week we lost Former Bishop, Thomas O'Brian, and Senator John McCain. Please pray for the repose of their souls.

Just a reminder, Bishop Olmsted and Bishop Nevares are asking all Catholics to fast for the purification of our Church this Wednesday, August 29.

St. Catherine's is in the process of re-establishing the School Advisory Board. Some of the responsibilities of the Board include budgeting, strategic planning, fundraising, building community, and advancing the school's mission. The primary goals this year are development, marketing, and recruitment. The first meeting is scheduled for September 10, beginning at 4:00 p.m. If you feel called to help our community, consider joining us. Please also help spread the word to any parishioners or community members interested in moving forward with our mission.

Saint of the Week:

St. Augustine sins of impurity and pride darkened his mind. He finally became convinced Christianity was the one true religion after reading the Letters of St. Paul, which said to put away all impurity and to imitate Jesus. He is considered one of the greatest saints to ever have lived.

"Too late came I to love you, O Beauty both so ancient and so new! Too late came I to love you- and behold you were with me all the time…"

- St. Augustine
