Content pillar	Skills/Diocesan Content Standard	Suggested Family Involvement
I. Scripture		General involvement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have a Bible in your house, and have your child become familiar with it. • Read the Bible as a family and allow each member to share in spirit of prayer what the Lord is telling them. • Read the Gospel together before you go to Mass. • Comment after Mass about the homily and the readings. • Watch as a family movies about stories from the Bible (i.e. Moses, David) Specific involvement
	Know that “Gospel” means “Good News.” The Gospels are four accounts of the life and teachings of Jesus.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use videos and music to re-enforce the Gospel messages. Become familiar with contemporary Christian artists and play them in your car. Keep videos and music in your home that exemplify the Gospel messages.
	Know that the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke are similar, and, therefore, called the synoptic gospels while the Gospel of John has a different, more reflective style and contains some additional stories.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Talk about the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. Ask your child to explain them to you. Compare and contrast the Synoptic Gospels with the Gospel of John. Discuss the value in both.

	Understand that the gospels are not biographies of Jesus, but are more like different portraits of him. Even though each gospel writer chose different stories to emphasize, all the gospels have the same message: Jesus is the Messiah, Son of God, who revealed the Father's love for us and saved us.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be mindful that we recognize Scripture as oral tradition. Just as you would recollect different facts from your past Christmas with your child so did the different Gospel writers.
	Know that Jesus' whole life and ministry took place in the area of Palestine, also called the Holy Land, and be able to identify important sites mentioned in the gospels, i.e., Nazareth, Galilee, Jerusalem, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Buy a map of the Holy Land—ancient and modern. To learn about Jesus and to be able to use His Word to help us in this world, we need to know him. We get to know him by spending time with him in prayer and by reading his messages to us in his Word—the Bible.
	Understand that the question that Jesus asks Peter, "Who do you say that I am?" must be answered by every Christian to develop a mature faith.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have your child describe who they are with various adjectives or a self-portrait. Do the same for Jesus and base the descriptions on His parables and miracles as found in the Gospels.
	Know the basic elements of the Gospel message: a. The Father's love is manifested in the good of creation. b. We have been separated from God's plan for us because of sin.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a walk or drive with your child and talk about God's creation. What makes it unique? How does it show His love for us—His children? • Discuss mercy and forgiveness in relationships at home, school, among friends. What divides us from each other? What unites and heals us?

	c. Jesus is the bridge back to the Father. d. Following in the way of Jesus and participating in the sacraments he made available in the Church will lead us to Salvation.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discuss the importance of bridges in our lives. Why do we need them? What purpose do they serve? Build bridges as craft projects or take a ride and look at different bridges in the area. What do they all have in common? Why is Jesus our bridge to the Father? • Refer to the Bible for passages on Baptism, Marriage, Forgiveness, Ordination, Healing, Pentecost, Eucharist and talk about how they show a special connection to God's Kingdom and how we are touched by His grace in these sacraments.

a. So that Jesus could save us by reconciling us to God the Father. b. So that we could know God's love for us. c. To be a model for holiness. d. To make us partakers of the Divine nature.	of the Incarnation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflect on what happens in Baptism. • Point out the scripture reference: “you cannot know the Father unless you know me”. • Have your child make a poster or mobile of what holiness means to your child. Take time to talk to them about how loving they were, or how difficult it was to forgive a hurt. Remind your child that he/she is doing what Jesus would do in the same situation.

	Know that Christian faith is a personal response, through grace, to Jesus' invitation and requires a relationship with him to grow and mature.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Show your child that you are connected to your own personal faith, growth and sign up for a Scripture study program in your parish.
	Know that after death we will be judged by the Lord according to our deeds and adherence to the Gospel.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Discuss death and Eternal Life with your child.
